Certificates for Honorable Mention!

Harry Potter, Dracula, even that Wimpy Kid, are all characters created from someones active imagination! I bet your imagination is just as active. Let's find out. Write a story and enter the Coweta Friends of the Library's Young Writers Contest!

Can't come up with a character to write about? Don't give up! Look around! I am sure there is a true or almost true family story that you could use! How about the time your grandma found a snake in the washing machine or your little brother caught a fish bigger than he was! Write it down, using your best spelling and grammar, and enter the contest!

Are you still having trouble picking a topic? Consider writing an essay about something that is important to you. Friendship, loyalty, patriotism, family, and honesty are all good topics. The choice is yours!

Just like all contests we have a few rules and a deadline. To enter you must be in the 4th, 5th, or 6th grade. The story must be turned in to the Coweta Library by 8 pm on March 26, 2013. Don't make it too long and don't write on the back. We have a few more rules but a list of all the rules and the entry forms can be picked up at the Coweta Library located at 120 E. Sycamore during regular library hours, or they can be downloaded from our new website at <http://cowetafriendsofthelibrary.org>. If you have any questions please feel free to call Kathy Cox at 918-639-6333 or Caren Hurlbut at 918-486-3828.
